

JUST BECAUSE I AM ME - by Saraphir Camille

C F G
Yes, I might look different, I might not walk quite straight,
C F G
You might not understand me, or I might sometimes make you wait.
C F G
You might think that I'm not worth much, but believe me that's not true,
F C G C
For once you really meet me then I have much to give to you.

F G C F
Because I can still laugh, and I can still cry,
F G C
And I am still there when you look into my eye.
F C G C
And I can still feel, and I can still touch,
F C G C
And just because I am me, I am good enough.

C F G
I know you might not find it easy to know exactly what to say,
C F G
But please take time to meet me, and don't just look away.
C F G
I might have a disability, but there's still much I can do,
F C G C
So please do not dismiss me just because I'm not like you.

F G C F
Because I can still laugh, and I can still cry,
F G C
And I am still there when you look into my eye.
F C G C
And I can still feel, and I can still touch,
F C G C
And just because I am me, I am good enough.

C F G
For you know I can still see you even if you think I don't;
C F G
And I can still deeply know you even if you think I won't,
C F G
Because it shows in how you meet me, I can smell it from afar,
F C G C
For your mask won't work with me, I know exactly who you are.

F G C F
Because I can still laugh, and I can still cry,
F G C
And I am still there when you look into my eye.
F C G C
And I can still feel, and I can still touch,
F C G C
And just because I am me, I am good enough.
